First periodic informal meeting with FonOff representatives for exchange of views and information on Sino-Soviet developments was held November 14 at FonOff club (Kaiyu Kaikan). FonOff was represented by Kimiya NIIZEKI, Counselor, Bureau European, Afro-Middle Eastern and Economic Affairs, Eiji TORUMA, East European Section Chief, Taro ISHII, Acting Chief China Section, Kenichiro NISHIZAWA, Permanent Secretary of Sino-Soviet Materials Committee. All expect to be regular participants in meetings. Embassy representatives were James S. Satterlin, First Secretary and William Gleysteen, Second Secretary. Japanese representatives made available three papers in Japanese. First of these is study of position of Japanese Communist Party vis-a-vis Soviet and Chinese Communist Parties; second is report of conversation which Russian speaking Japanese diplomats had with Professor SVIRIDOV on subject of Soviet-Chinese differences re Taiwan at Society of Friends Clarens Seminar; third is FonOff comment on composition Chinese delegation to forty-third October Revolution anniversary celebration in Moscow. Embassy is currently translating these documents and will forward translations under despatch as soon as possible.

As authorized by Department we gave to Japanese copies of IR-8338 (Soviet Activities in the Congo), IR-8348 (Khrushchev's Role in Leadership Circumscribed), IIB-312 (Checklist of Sino-Soviet Differences), IR-8334 (Bloc Reaction to Sino-Soviet Dispute), IIB-310 (Developments in Sino-Soviet Bloc Economic Offensive to June 30, 1960), and IR-8332 (Communist China's Political and Economic Offensive in Africa). In turning over this last document we stressed our concern over increasing Bloc activities in Africa, expressed U.S. appreciation for Japanese efforts to encourage development of free and responsible governments in this area and indicated interest in any information available now or in future to FonOff on Bloc activities in Africa. We removed all indications of origin from INR publications before giving them to FonOff representatives.
